Definitions

Aggregated Load

This is the total load for the classes that fall into the time period of this Statement. The aggregated load is expressed as a percentage of the load you will need to maintain in order to complete this program in minimum time.
For the purposes of receiving income support payments and other concessions, an aggregated load of 75% or greater may be required.

Units

Higher Education – Credit points per class
Vocational Education – Nominal hours per class

EFTSL

Equivalent Full-Time Student Load. One EFTSL is a measure of the study load, for a year, of a student undertaking a program on a full time basis.

EFTSL Contribution

This value is the portion of EFTSL that contributes to the aggregated load calculated for the time period on this Statement.
